

'Why the
United States
Should Invade
New Zealand;
A Sordid
Narrative from the Enemy Within'

The NZ Herald perspective columnist Tracey Barnett will be speaking at the Devonport Library on Thursday evening, November 5th at 8:00pm on, "*Why the United States Should Invade New Zealand;
A Sordid Narrative from the Enemy Within*".
Alarmed or simply confused locals are particularly welcome as she is a Devonport resident.

Besides writing for the NZ Herald, Tracey Barnett's work has been published in seven countries, having written for The Chicago Tribune, The Toronto Star, The Sunday Times [South Africa], and The Scotsman, among others. She has been an occasional commentator on TV3's Campbell Live and Media 7, but can most often be found wandering the aisles of New World, the Devonport Branch Library or Civic Video clutching overdue material. Her commentary can be found on her website: www.traceybarnett.co.nz

Thursday 5th November 2009 7.30pm drinks & nibbles 8.00pm talk at the Devonport Library, Windsor Reserve

For more information phone Devonport Library 486-8529

All are welcome to this event